Biography

Allison Fisher MBE is one of the most accomplished and influential figures in the world of cuesports. Originally from England, Allison rose to prominence as a dominant force in women's snooker, earning over 80 national and international titles before transitioning to professional pool in the United States in 1995. Her precision, composure, and relentless pursuit of excellence earned her the nickname "The Duchess of Doom."

Over her celebrated career, Allison has captured multiple world championships, including 11 world titles, and numerous WPBA Classic Tour victories. Beyond her competitive achievements, she is a respected coach, commentator, and ambassador for the sport - sharing her passion and experience with players of all levels around the world. Awarded the Member of the Order of the British Empire (MBE) for her contributions to sport, Allison continues to inspire the next generation through coaching, media, and mentorship.
